Starting from the church in Champanges, you'll reach the village of Larringes, then the hamlets of Féternes.

An easy walk to discover the different landscapes of the Gavot plateau.

The more curious will discover an imposing stone bowl, evidence of a prehistoric presence, and, near the Château-Vieux chapel, the lime tree planted in Sully's time, or the Gerbaz mill, which produced flour and oil until 1932.

HIKING LOOP FROM MARAVANT

The path leads from the edge of the plateau, with its plunging view over Lake Geneva, to the more intimate territory of the Maravant valley (meaning "bad ravine"). The Saint-Martin de Champanges church (starting point) dates from 1720.

YOUR ROUTE

Start at Champanges church.

- 1 Follow the main road towards Larringes. At "Saint Martin", turn right. Follow the narrow road to the Larringes soccer stadium.
- 2 Turn right at the soccer stadium, and continue along a small dead-end road. Continue along a footpath to the hamlet of "La Gerbaz". Go around the hamlet, then follow the river to the hamlet of "Les Thières".
- 3 Bypass the small hamlet and take a small road towards Chullien. After crossing the river, take the local road on your right, which leads to Champanges, your starting point.
- 4 At the end of the road, turn right and drive past the butcher's shop and "La Prairie" campsite. You'll soon reach the village church.
