There's no difficulty on this walk, making it ideal for a family outing.

There are several bus stops along the way, should you wish to make just one trip, or shorten your walk.

Along the way, you'll be able to observe the mountains of the Abondance valley and their alpine pastures, as well as the traditional habitat. You'll pass an old bread oven. You may even come across some Abondance cows in the meadows along the way.
